THE HURRICANE.

[Concluded.]

"Its very cold!" whispered the unhappy man, as he looked up imploringly to the hunter, who, apparently incapable of the slightest motion, stood near him, as if carved in stone; "it's very cold, Bill—can't you bring a little fire here?"

These words dissolved the rigid ice that congealed the senses of the almost unconscious Bill. "Brother! brother!" he exclaimed, and fell weeping bitterly on his mangled body.

"Bill, you hurt me!" said the latter in a tone of entreaty, "my arm pains me—and it is so cold."

"Wait, I will bring you fire immediately; in a few seconds!" exclaimed Bill, springing up suddenly; lie quiet for one moment; I will bring coals, and then I will help you up; have patience for an instant only."

And in headlong haste he ran back to the still blazing fire. Alas, he did not remark the faint, painful smile, which crept across the features of the unhappy man, as his brother begged him to "have patience." Hurriedly he collected coals and brands; the heat scorching his hunting shirt and hands; he did not heed it, but sped back to his brother's side. Dry branches lay around them in abundance, and, in a few moments a bright and cheerful fire blazed up near the trunk beneath whose enormous weight the hunter lay, buried alive.

With a shuddering glance Bill now beheld all the horror of his brother's condition, and, with almost maniacal exertions, he strove with his single strength to raise the tree, which a hundred men could not stir a hair's breadth.

"Bill!" cried Tom, in a low, entreating tone, "come here—come, give me your hand—so, that's right; and now, Bill, do you really love me—very much?"

A convulsive grasp of the brother's hand was the sole reply to this question. He was unable to speak, for tears, violently repressed, stifled all utterance.

"Will you then grant me one prayer?" said Tom, in a tone of supplicating endearment, drawing his unresisting brother closer to him.

"One prayer!" said Bill, in a whisper—"one prayer! What would you ask that I would not do for you, if it were in my power?"

"Do you promise to grant it?"

"What is it you mean?" asked Bill, in anxious wonder.

"Take your rifle," replied Tom, with a faint smile, "and put an end to my sufferings!"

"Tom!" cried the latter, springing up in horror.

"Put an end to my sufferings!" said the unhappy man, imploringly. "Bill! brother if you have ever loved me, prove it now—do not leave me to linger here in slow torture!"

"I will save you, should it cost me my life," said Bill. This very afternoon I will return with help."

"That is impossible," replied the unhappy man, sadly shaking his head. "The nearest settlment is at least fifteen miles from here, in a straight line; but the way you would have to take, to avoid all the rifts and chasms, would make it twenty—and even if you were to come and bring with you fifty men—what good could they do me? Both my legs are crushed, and the nearest doctor lives in Little Rock, hundreds of miles from here. Bill! will you leave me lying here for hours, only to see me afterwards perish miserably?"

"Ask my own life, Tom, and I will cheerfully give it to you, but do not ask a thing so dreadful of me; I can, I must save you—I have my hatchet—I can cut this tree in pieces—I can—"

"Can you heal wounds like these?" said Tom, interrupting him and he pointed with his fingers to his crushed limbs. It was indeed a dreadful sight, and his brother sank shuddering on his knees.

"I cannot murder you! he groaned forth faintly.

"And do you call it murder? Oh, Bill!" he continued, "if you had the slighest idea of what I suffer, you would have compassion, you would not let me implore you in vain!"

"I will give you the rifle—do not make me a brother's murderer! cried Bill, in wild anguish.

"My right arm is broken—I cannot, even if I would."

"Tom!" sobbed forth the strong man, as he cast himself beside his brother, "what is it you ask of me?"

"What did you lately do with Nestor, when the bear had torn out his entrails?"

"I shot him!"

"He was your favorite hound."

Bill answered only with sobs.

"And did you love him more than you love me?" asked Tom, in a tone almost of reproach.

"Oh, why did I not listen to your warning, when we came last evening to this unhappy spot? Why did I not fly from those withered trunks, which stood threatning everywhere around us! Why—"

"Bill," said the unhappy man, interrupting him, "will you not put an end to my sufferings?"

"I will!" replied Bill, weeping upon his brother's neck. The two held each other in a long and warm embrace, but when Tom, at last, endeavored to push him gently from him, the other only clasped him the closer. Day now dawned in the east, and the sun's rays gilded the branches of the trees.

"Let us part!" said Tom, in a whisper, "be a man."

He now pushed his brother kindly from him and the latter rose.

"Well, then—be it so!" he cried. "I see you are right—rescue is impossible. I know also that I would have required the same from you in such a case, and you would not have refused me. Pray once more to God—and—pray for me, too, that He may forgive me for this deed!"

Bill staggered forth to fetch his rifle; he returned, however, with a firm and steadfast step, carrying the weapon in his left hand. With the right he swung himself over the trunks which lay scattered around, and in a few moments, stood again near his brother, who looked up affectionately in his face.

"I am ready!" said Tom, with a smile; "but do not tremble—and may God reward you for this faithful service—farewell!".

Turning aside his face, he reached out his left, uninjured hand.

"Brother!" cried the young hunter, borne down by the fearful conflict of emotions which raged within his soul, "brother!" and he sank once more upon his breast.

They held each other in a convulsive clasp, when Tom, at last, said in a whisper. "Delay no longer!" and, with a sudden bound, the hunter leaped to his feet, lifted the rifle to his cheek and the next moment lay senseless near the dead body of his brother.

Little remains to be narrated. Why should we describe how, when at last, his senses returned, he heaped branch after branch upon his brother's corpse, that the wolves and panthers might not fasten their greedy fangs upon those beloved remains? How he staggered onward, and tended by strangers, wrestled for months with death, in the wild fantasies of fever? But enough of the terrible. Not long did the blood-bathed countenance of his brother startle him in dreams by night; not long did the visions of that scene start him with a cry of horror from his bed. On an expedition against a band of marauding Indians of the Creek nation, a friendly bullet put an end to his existence, and his comrades buried him where he fell.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Dr. V. C. Price,

ANALYTICAL PHYSICIAN,

OF BUFFALO, N. Y.,

WILL be for consultation on diseases generally, at Janesville, Ford House, on Friday and Saturday forenoon, the 15th and 16th of February; Woodstock, Feb. 17th and 18th; Whitewater, Feb. 14th; Racine, Feb. 11th.

Dr. Price devotes all of his time to the cure of Scrofula, Rheumatism, Fits, Nervous Maladies, Female Difficulties, Consumption, Throat, Liver, Heart, and all Chronic diseases.

Our practice of seventeen years standing differs from all others, founded on truth, no trifling with human existence, sacrificing life by experiments. We know on examination the cause of disease and remedies needed to remove it, not by guessing but by knowledge. No poisons or harsh medicines to ruin the constitution, no making sick to make well, tearing down to build up, giving encouragement without a prospect, no abandoning business or starving, nor coming once never to be seen again. We are regular every few weeks in our visits, frank in our opinions, honest in our dealings, and moderate in our charges. We invite investigation, claim not to know everything, or to cure everybody, but do claim to reason and common sense, and to cure seven out of ten pronounced incurable. We respectfully request those who have tried this respectable physician, that scientific doctor, boasted and advertised medicines and doctors till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. It costs nothing, as consultation is free. dec31daw

Not to be Settled by Compromises.

Is it not strange that compromisers on the slavery question never learn anything? They think now, as Webster, Clay and Fillmore thought, in 1850, that the resolves and the enactments of a few old women at Washington, will be a "finality" to that question. They forget that anti-slavery is not alone a political matter, but that it has a deeper foundation. The religious sentiment of the country has been aroused upon this subject, and the consciences of men have been touched, as with a flame, burning upon them the truth that not only political rights are jeopardized by slavery, but the moral nature of the slave, as well as the master, is perverted and outraged.—Religious feeling, and a sense of justice, is strong in the American people, and he is a rash man, who trifles with, or overlooks these considerations. You cannot coerce them into silence or inactivity by resolutions, enactments, or amendments to constitutions; and whoever attempts to stifle them by suppressions, or repels their free expression, will produce a popular whirlwind compared with which the present uproar in the nation is a dead calm. The discussion of slavery and opposition to it will continue as long as it is considered a reproach to our country and a wrong to the slave. Cotton and money may conspire to terrify the politicians and purchase a compromise, but the free, unfettered people, who have no interest in stock gambling, nor in the distrabution of offices, will be heard after the conspirators against human rights have completed their work. Let that be remembered.

Mr. Lincoln's Movements.

It is decided by the president elect that he will leave Springfield for Washington, on Monday, the 11th inst. The time table over the Great Western Railroad of Illinois has been made up for the special train for that purpose. It will consist of a single passenger car only, with the usual attending baggage car. The president's party will number fifteen. Of these none will be ladies—Mrs. Lincoln choosing to avoid the fatigue of such a journey. The train will leave Springfield at 8 30 A. M. Monday, stopping at Decatur and Toledo, and arrive at the Indiana State line at 1:20 P. M.; thence the party go to Lafayette, and thence to Indianapolis, where they will arrive at 5 P. M. Such are the present arrangements.

From Indianapolis, we nndetstand that Mr. Lincoln will proceed to Cincinnati, thence to Cleveland, Buffalo and Albany. It has not been announced, as yet, that he will go to New York and Boston, but it is probable he will find it impossible to deny the pressing invitations which he will recieve from those cities. His whole progress will be attended by large gatherings of the people, as more interest is felt in Mr. Lincoln, than any president elected since Washington.

He occupies a peculiar not to say dangerous position, on account of the complication of political affairs, and the public curiosity will be great to see him, and to greet one who carries with him so largly the fortunes of the UNION. He will receive on his journey many tokens of respect, affection and confidence of the people. May he be wise, firm and true, in his great trust, remembering that LIBERTY comes before UNION, and that everything is subordinate to these.

☞ The contest for senator in New York was principally between Evarts a friend of Weed, and Greeley. It was ended in the caucus, by the Evarts men voting for Ira Harris and nominating him. It is chaimed, however, by the opponents of the Weed regency that Harris is not a friend of theirs, but independent of all cliques.

THE MILWAUKEE POST OFFICE.—A special agent of the post office department has taken formal possession of the Milwaukee post office. Reason—there was a "slight discrepancy" in the accounts of the ex-postmaster.

☞ We see that the state model farm project is again broached by a correspondent of the Madison Journal. We have seen enough of exclusively state institutions of learning and of agriculture to satisfy us that money appropriated in that way is worse than wasted.

☞ We learn from the Madison Journal that Mr. Webb of Waushara, a member of the assembly who pretends to be a republican, has declared himself willing (to avert civil war) to concede the extension of slavery into all our states and territories. Mr. Webb is a little more ultra in his concessions than some of the conservatives who only want to sacrifice the "worthless" territories.

☞ Kansas brings as much territory into the Union as the cotton states take out. South Carolina will please smoke on that for a while.

A HIGH-HANDED OUTRAGE.—A Washington correspondent of the New York Times says:

The first prisoner of war, Lieut. Jas. E. Jouett, arrived here to-day, and reported himself to Secretary Toucey. Lieut. Jouett is attached to the steamer Crusader, now in the Gulf, but was temporarily employed on the Wyandotte. He went ashore at Pensacola, and was immediately seized as a prisoner, but released on parole of honor not to bear arms against the state of Florida, and a passport was furnished him. Having proceeded to New Orleans, with the hope of being able to join his vessel from that point, he wasagain threatened, by Collector Hatch, with arrest, unless he departed speedily. The next train found him en route for Washington.

After hearing the statement, Secretary Toucey requested the statement to be committed to writing, as the position of Jouett is a novel one. This statement has been made, and, with the passport, laid before the government. Jouett does not consider his parole binding should the department order him back to the Gulf. He silently received his passport but gave no promise whatever.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATURE.

MADISON, Feb. 7.

In the SENATE, the capitol extension bill was prssed.

The amendments of the assembly to the resolutions appointing commissioners to Washington were referred to the committee on federal relations, who reported them back, in the afternoon, with amendments, inserting the names of Doolittle, Potter, Durkee and Washburn, and further that they shall not feel called on to act unless they deem it advisable.

Sen. A. I. Bennett moved to strike out the names proposed by the committee and insert L. Hanchett, Sloan, Doolittle, Howe and Potter.

This was decided in the negative as follows:

Ayes—A. I. Bennett, Cunning, Decker, Egan, Ferguson, Hutchinson, Maxon, Philips, Quentin, Sweat, Sweet and Virgin—12.

Noes—Bartlett, Bean, Geo. Bennett, Browne, Carey, Cox, Crane, Foot, Gill, Hazelton, Joiner, Kingston, Montgomery, Stewart, Utley and Worthington—16.

The question was then upon the first amendment offered by the committee on federal relations to strike out that part authorizing the governor to appoint, which was carried by ayes 16, noes 12.

The question was then on inserting the names reported by the committee on federal relations.

Sen. A. I. Bennett said he should now vote for the names as he had no personal objections to them, but was sincere in believing the others best under the circumstance.

The vote on adopting names reported by committee on federal relations stood as follows:

Ayes—Bartlett, Bean, A. I. Bennett, G. Bennett, Browne, Carey, Cox, Crane, Foot, Gill, Hazleton, Joiner, Kingston, Montgomery, Stewart, Utley and Worthington—17.

Noes—Cunning, Decker, Egan, Ferguson, Hutchinson, Maxon, Philips, Quentin, Sweat, Sweet and Virgin—11.

The question then recurred on the amendment leaving it discretionary with them to act or not as they saw fit, which was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Bartlett, Bean, Geo. Bennett, Browne, Carey, Cox, Crane, Foot, Gill, Hazleton, Kingston, Maxon, Phillips, Quentin, Sweat, Sweet and Virgin—15.

Noes—A. I. Bennett, Cunning, Decker, Egan, Ferguson, Hutchinson, Kingston, Maxon, Phillips, Quentin, Sweat, Sweet and Virgin—13.

[This vote is obviously reported wrong. The ayes contain 17 names, and Messrs. Sweat, Sweet and Virgin are recorded on both sides.—EDS. GAZETTE.]

On concurring with the Assembly as amended the vote stood as follows:

Ayes—Bartlett, Bean, Geo. Bennett, Browne, Carry, Cox, Crane, Foot, Gill, Hazelton, Joiner, Kingston, Montgomery, Stewart, Utley and Worthington—16.

Nays—A. I. Bennett, Cunning, Decker, Egan, Ferguson, Hutchinson, Maxon, Phillips, Quentin, Sweat, Sweet and Virgin—12.

On motion of Sen. Hutchinson the Senate took a recess.

In the ASSEMBLY, the question being upon concurring in the first amendment of the senate, appointing Doolittle, Durkee, Washburn and Potter, it was decided as follows:

Ayes—Bailey, Bear, Benson, Bradford, Bredemeyer, Buck, Campbell, Caverno, Chandler, Clark, Cottrell, Dwight, Fobes, Frank, Frisby, Garrison, Gilbert, Graham, S. W. Graves, L. R. Graves, Hammond, Harris, Hazen, Hicks, C. R. Johnson, Kirkpatrick, Knapp, Lapham, Linsley, Minor, Munroe, Newton, Palmer, Pickett, Pope, Pullen, Robbins, Rugee, Spooner, Smith, Stevenson, Warner, White, Willard, Youmans, Mr. Speaker—46.

Nays—Abert, Atwood, Bettis, Bly, Bodden, Bonney, Carey, Chapman, Comstock, Cone, Dieves, Ellis, Emery, Everts, Finley, Flint, Gee, Hall, Haney, Hanrahan, Hays, D. H. Johnson, Keogh, Lain, Long, Mackay, Massey, Messmore, Mitchell, Northrop, Parker, Petrie, Pfaff, Prentiss, Ramsey, Riordan, Sawyer, Schaetzel, Slanton, Thomas, Temple, Webb, Williams, Winkler—45.

Democrats in italics,

The second amendment of the senate was then declared concurred in 46 to 45.

The Argus declares that the vote actually stood 45 to 45, which would have defeated the last amendment, which was to leave it discretionary to the commissioners to act or not, as they thought best.

[Special despatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.]

Affairs at the National Capitol.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

The city council has appointed a committee to wait upon Messrs. Lincoln and Hamlin, and receive them in Washington.

Gen. Scott received several threatening letters yesterday. He has changed his quarters from up town to the National Hotel.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA COMMISSIONER.

Col. Hayne leaves in the morning for Charleston, having received a reply that he cannot dispose of Fort Sumpter as the property of the federal government, that power resting solely with congress. This will be reported by him to Gov. Pickens, and then, if hostilities are to commence at all, we will have them immediately.

Lieut. Hall left this afternoon with despatches for Major Anderson, which were prepared for him yesterday by the president, secretary of war and Gen. Scott.

COUNTING THE VOTES.

On Wednesday, the 13th inst., the senate and house will meet in joint convention, in the hall of the house of representatives, with the vice president in the chair, to count the votes for president and vice president. On that day Lincoln will be declared president, by Breckinridge.

PETITIONS.

A large number of petitions were presented in the senate to-day praying for the Union and constitution as they are, and the enforcement of the laws.

Sen. Wade presented a petition of the citizens of Philadelphia, numerously signed, urging congress to stand firmly in the support of the Union, the constitution and the laws.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.

The Virginia election has greatly elevated the hopes of the Union men, but it is important at this time that the result should not be misunderstood. The great bulk of those elected as Unionists are for secession in case certain measures of compromise are not adopted. How far their demands go cannot now be stated, but they will require some action by congress before the 1st of March, looking to a final settlement of existing troubles. This I obtain from a well informed source, and it may be relied upon. It is confirmed by views expressed by John Tyler in the conference to-day, upon the occasion of being chosen president.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAJOR ANDERSON.

Lieut. Hall takes out instructions to Major Anderson to maintain his position, but to make no aggression unless assailed. He is promised re-inforcements, in case they can be got to him.

Scott and Holt have brought the president up to his former policy.

It is even now believed that the Carolinians will not attack the fort until toward the last of the session.

SELECT COMMITTEE.

The examination to-day before the select committee of five was the most important had yet. Certain Baltimore witnesses were before the committee, one of whom admitted that he was engaged in drilling men. He denied that any attack had been secretly concerted against the capital. What was to be done would be done openly. He further stated that the organization existed to prevent any armed bodies of men from the north visiting Washiagton between now and the inauguration, and said such an attempt would inevitably lead to bloodshed. The witness openly avowed himself a secessionist in case existing difficulties are not soon settled. He did not state the number of the organization, but admitted it was large. Howard asked him how he would know whom to oppose, and what number of men would call for their opposition. The witness replied the Baltimoreans would keep a bright look-out. It is understood that the "National Volunteers" are in this movement, and are constantly being drilled in warlike exercises. To-morrow several other important witnesses from Baltimore will be examined, and something will probably be elicited of an interesting character.

The witnesses get two dollars per day and congressional mileage.

BOTTS DEFEATED.

Botts has been defeated for the Virginia convention.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.

Gov. Letcher, of Virginia, was on the floor of the house to-day, and was greeted by members from north and south. He expressed the opinion that Virginia will accept no plan of compromise guaranteeing less than the Crittenden proposition, and adds that the Virginia commissioners will recommend secession as their ruling action unless this is complied with.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.

SENATE.—Mr. Thompson presented several petitions in favor of the Crittenden resolution. He also presented the resolutions of the legislature of New Jersey, which his colleague had presented during his absence, and said he entirely dissented from the views of his colleague.

Mr. Ten Eyck replied and said he had no desire to avail himself of his colleagne's absence. He continued that the resolutions did not express the calm feeling of the people as shown by the voters of the recent election; but the resolutions sent were rushed through the senate of New Jersey when few members were present.

Mr. Collamer presented a petition from the citizens of Vermont asking congress to adopt an amendment to the constitution similar to the border state propositions. He said he was willing to do all in his power in congress, but not anything was now allowed by the constitution, which says that congress may propose amendments to be submitted to the states; and further, if states wanted amendments let them say so by conventions, and congress must agree.

Mr. Cameron presented a petition signed by five thousand citizens of Philadelphia, representing probably thirty or forty thousand people, in favor of the Crittenden-Bigler resolutions.

The president's message was taken up.

Wigfall replied to Johnson. He said the effect of Johnson's first speech indicated in favor of coercion, and it was too late now to deny it. The senator from Tennessee complained that great arguments had been used, but he (Wigfall) had not heard any great arguments. He argued against coercion, and attempts to enforce laws was coercion and war. He said Helper was not as slanderous against the south as sentiments uttered by southern senators. The south had no desire to make war, but intended to live under such a government as they saw fit. He claimed that the south had a mint of wealth in cotton, and feared the destruction of northern commerce if the ports of the south are blockaded. A vessel would be fired into if it carried the flag of thirty-three states into a port where they have plucked stars from it.

The subject was postponed till Monday. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The galleries of the house were densely crowded to-day. Among the spectators were the commissoners to the peace convention. A sound like the reverberating of a cannon startled almost every body. The members rushed to their feet and the ladies hastily left the galleries. The Speaker quieted their fears by saying that something had fallen on the roof. It was subsequently found that the wind had blown down a small derrick.

The report of the committee of thirty-three was up. Corwin gave notice that he should move to close the debate a week from Friday. Davis of Maryland took the floor. He said six states had rebelled against the constitutional law of the land, assuming independent powers, seizing ships, and forts, and insulting the national flag.—He objected to the supplying of arms by a cabinet minister to those about to make war upon the constitution; wandering from state to state flagrantly violating the constitution by stirring up rebellion; and a cabinet minister while holding his commission and bound by oath to support the constitution, going haranguing from one state to another, organizing another part of the scheme of rebellion. We have seen the president neglecting the warnings of the first military officer of the age, allowing the forts to be taken, and consequently seen him making bargains for peace with disunionists, until asking to be relieved from the responsibilities, instead of defending and vindicating the public honor. He considered the president incapable of filling his position. The constitution and laws must be enforced. He said he should speak for Maryland, who has confidence in the strength of the great government which protects her.

Kunkel—If you speak for that state I desire to be heard, (cries of order.)

Davis—I decline to yield the floor.

Kunkel—Speak for yourself, not for Maryland.

Davis continued, and said that Maryland does not recognize the right of secession or the right to repeal the supreme law of the land. Those who should presume to inaugurate revolution would meet with resistance on the soil of Maryland under the stars and stripes.

Mr. Sedgewick said so powerless and low has the government fallen that even insignificant Florida, flapped the disunion banner in the face of the United States. Even there a truce had been devised between this government and the army of that state.—He opposed all remedies proposed by the committee; he was opposed to compromises; he would consent that the slave states go into a seperate confederacy with full consent of all parties.

Mr. Vallandingham offered a proposition to amend the constitution by dividing the United States into four sections:—New England and the Middle States, forming one. The North-Western States another. The Pacific States another; and the Southern States east of the Rio Grande, another, to be called the North, the West, the Pacific, and the South.

A resolution was passed authorising Lt. Creoen to receive presents from the Spanish government. Recess.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.

The senate bill which passed the house to-day provides that there shall be no extension of any patent when the commissioner is satisfied that the nett profits are $10,-000.

The United States steamer Mohawk, Lt. Craven commanding, arrived this morning, she was coaling and would depart the following day for Tortugas and Pensacola.

The Crusader was in port and would sail in a few days.

The Wyandotte was expected from Pensacola in the course of a week. The Marion was spoken, on the 30th, 10 miles off Sand Key, bound into Tortugas.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.

The following statement in relation to surrender of the revenue cutter McClelland is derived from an official source. The cutter is one of the largest and best in the revenue service, just rebuilt and refitted. Her commander was Capt. Brushwood, of Virginia.

On the 19th of January, four days after Secretary Dix took charge of the treasury department, he sent Wm. Jones to New Orleans and Mobile to have, if possible the cutter on service there.

Capt. Morrisson, commanding the Lewis Cass at Mobile, surrendered her before Mr. Jones arrived.

On the 29th of January, the secretary received the following telegrahpic despatch from Mr. Joues:

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 29.

To Hon. J. A. Dix:—Capt. Brushwood has refused, positively, to obey the instruction of the department. In this he is sustained by the collector. What must I do?

(Signed) W. H. JONES.

To this despatch Secretary Dix replied as follows:

[The despatch of Sec'y Dix has heretofore been published.]

This despatch, it is said, must have been intercepted both at Montgomery and New Orleans, and withheld from Mr. Jones, and that the conduct of Capt. Brushwood was consummated by the means of a complicity on the part of the captain with the states of Alabama and Mississippi which latter states have accepted the cutter.

But a short time was spent in open session. The committee on the plan of a provisional government reported in secret session. It was discussed four hours with much unanimity of feeling, when the constitution of the United States was adopted with some additions in relation to free states.

ATCHISON, Feb. 6.

Mr. A. A. Greene, of Irving, Marshall county, 80 miles from Atchison, says that the cattle and hogs in his neighborhood are actually starving. The inhabitants are nearly destitute of food and must perish unless relief is immediately afforded, the desperation of despair is surging upon them. Their teams are giving out, are too weak to make their way through the snows.—Some have been four weeks in trying to get from the Republican Forks to Atchison, and have turned back disheartened. The population of Lasalle county is about three thousand. Mr. Jerome has hurried to Atchison with all possible despatch, fearing that the people on the Little Blue will suffer before he can get back with supplies.—The condition of roads in that region is now so bad that only about ten miles a day can be travelled.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 6.

The citizens meeting of union men continued at the Verandah Hall, this P. M. pursuant to adjournment, to receive a report of the committtee of 25 appointed at the previous meeting. HARD STRUGGLE.—Our townsman, Chas. Alter, had a hard struggle for dear life on Thursday. He was coming in from the bluffs through deep snow, and when about a mile from town he found that his face was frozen and his fingers hard as sticks.—Knowing it to be impossible to reach town in this condition, he laid down and rolled himself in the snow till the frost was partly removed from his face and hands. He then pushed forward with great difficulty, and reached home to find his feet and ankles badly frozen.—La Crosse Mirror.

A SECESSION PLOT.—I learn from reliable authority that a plan had been concocted in New Orleans for seizing the Crusader, but her commander was not to be entrapped. It was arranged that Lieut. Maffitt should visit New Orleans and whilst there be complimented with a dinner. All the officers were to be invited, and the whole party made drunk. The city authorities were then to take quiet possession of the ship, and anchor her off in the stream.—Correspondence of New York Times.

Public Schools.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION,
Janesville, Feb. 5th, 1861.

At a meeting of the Board of Education, held this day at their office, it was resolved that the next term of the Public Schools of the city of Janesville should commence on Monday the 18th day of the present month.

Teachers who are in the employ of the city, and those who have been notified that their services, as teachers, would be expected, will please hold themselves in readiness to enter upon the discharge of their duties at that time.

JAMES ARMSTRONG,
f5dawlw Clerk of Board of Education.

Charter Meeting.

The meeting called to consider the proposed changes to the city charter assembles at the court house this evening. All who feel any interest in the question should be present.

To Messrs. G. S. Strasberger, J. M. Riker, J. M. Burgess and John P. Hoyt, committee for Kansas relief:

I have been instructed by the Burns' Festival committee to hand you twenty-five dollars, being proceeds of the late "Burns' anniversary," held at the Hyatt House on the evening of the 25th ultimo, (which amount you will please find enclosed,) to be applied for the relief of the suffering in Kansas. ROBT. GEDDES, Sec'y.

Janesville, Feb. 6, 1861.

To Rob't Geddes, Sec'y.:—

DEAR SIR—Your communication of the 6th inst., enclosing twenty-five dollars from the Burns' festival committee "to be applied for the relief of the suffering in Kansas," is received.

G. S. STRASBERGER,
J. M. RIKER,
J. M. BURGESS,
JOHN P. HOYT,
Committee.

THE BACK TRACK.—An editor never likes to take back anything he has said, but an "explanation" is always in order. We misunderstood our informant in reporting the number of lots sold in the Oak Hill Cemetery last year, and got the number somewhat too large. Instead of 300, twenty-four was the number disposed of. This correction is due to the association as well as the good name of the city and her physicians who have charge of the health of her people.

Relief for Kansas.

The Kansas relief committee would acknowledge the receipt of the following donations:

Simon Van Patten, 1 bag of beans.
S. Griggs, 1 bag of flour.
K. Killman, 1 bag of wheat.
Miss A. A. Knowles, Harmony, $10 in cash.
J. D. Rexford, Janesville, $10 in cash.
do 1 sack clothing.
J. E. W., $2 in cash.
Ladies' Benevolent Society, Emerald Grove, 1 box wearing apparel, etc., all new, valued at $14,45.
Ezra Cheesbro, 1 bbl. flour.

And various parcels for which we have no names to report.

The committee would suggest to any of the farmers or citizens in Rock county that wish to donate seed wheat, garden seeds or other articles, or provisions to sustain life, that they will aid them in so doing, and bags can be had by applying to the chairman of the committee.

G. S. STRASBERGER,
J. M. RIKER,
J. M. BURGESS,
J. P. HOYT,
Committee.

THE WIZZARD.—Mr. Wyman's exhibition was well attended last evening. Many rare feats were introduced, and all were unusually well performed. There is nothing of the foreign flummery usual to his class of exhibitors about him, while his entertainments are really worthy of approbation. A quarter is well invested by those who go to see him.

A TIMELY DONATION.—The donation by the managers of the recent Burns' festival to the suffering people of Kansas proves that the hospitable virtues of the countrymen of the poet have lost none of their strength by a transfer to another land. A warm heart makes a cheerful donor.

Dr. Middleton, a young physician of Washington, recently went to Alabama, to settle in the practice of his profession. Although a democrat he was a Union man, and for expressing his opinions he was expelled from the state with his family. His notice was so short that he had scarcely time to pack his trunks, and was obliged to sacrifice his horse and carriage and other property. He has just arrived back to the capital.

Lieut. North, lately of the United States navy, has accepted the office of admiral of the navy of South Carolina, which navy consists of the revenue cutter stolen from the United States.

TRAMPLING ON THE AMERICAN FLAG.—At the Richmond (Va.) Theatre, not long since, an actress (Miss Bitchings, we are told) undertook to sing "Hail Columbia," or "The Star Spangled Banner," but was promptly hissed down. She then came forward, bearing the stars and stripes, and sang the Southern Marseillaise, during which she threw down the flag and trampled upon it, when

> "At once there rose so wild a yell,
> As all the fiends from Heaven that fell
> Had raised the banner cry of Hell."

Every disgraceful insult that can be heaped upon our country's flag in the southern theatres is sure to win tumultuous applause; but is such applause worth the cost? Time will show.

As the post office department has very properly discontinued all mails to Pensacola, the people of that place are fearfully enraged, but hope to get over the difficulty by having their mail matter sent to the adjacent office at Warrenton. The department should cut off that point also.

They must have had cold weather up in La Crosse. The Democrat says a child in that city had its arm so badly frozen by sleeping with it on the outside of the bed clothes, that its amputation will be necessary.

Should the terrible conflagrations that are sweeping over the country in all directions prove as frequent and disastrous for a twelve month to come as they have during the last eighteen months, very many of the small Fire Insurance Companies, having their agents scattered throughout the west, must go to the wall, there is no salvation for them. If you would be safe, safe beyond peradventure, always insure with companies that are known to be sound. Such, and such only, are represented at

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July,	1850, Net Assets of the Company,		$570,863 43

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Amalgamation of Languages.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words in other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into their own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming particularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this afternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; Anemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical enegies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper.—In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

Bridget.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the sick headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarter and give me the pills and dont be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is your headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists.—Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

Twenty Millions of Dollars Saved.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his glue, headache will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over Excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of nervous headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks, by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

Fact Worth Knowing.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Billous Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

Great Discovery.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the sick headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.
